RE: Account(s): .-6008

Dear SINA MOKHTAR:

We are delighted that you have chosen Fidelity Investments as your financial services provider.

Please be aware that your current residency document is about to expire. In order to keep your account from becoming restricted, we will need an updated copy of any one of the following documents.

- Your U.S. permanent resident card;
- Your U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status;
- Your USCIS approval notice granting asylum along with a U.S. Photo ID;
- A copy of an immigration judge's order that states that you were granted asylum in the United States along with a U.S. Photo ID.
- H1-B Visa for Temporary Workers or Employment Authorization Card;
- F-1 Student Visa or J-1 Visa.

It is Fidelity's policy to maintain valid residency documentation on file. You will receive a request for updated proof of residency 30 days prior to your document's expiration date.

Please provide a copy of one of the above-referenced documents at your earliest convenience. You can upload them on the Secure Message Center on Fidelity.com.

Alternatively, you may reference the file number and fax a copy of both sides of the document to 800-984-8451, or by mailing the documents to:
